Comrades, Happy New Year and welcome to 2025! I hope you all have a healthy and wonderful new year. We are in that time of the year where there isn't much going on but I want to put this on your radar, In the beginning of May is our annual Loyalty Day Celebration and I would like as many in attendance as possible. State Commander's Message

From the Desk of the Department Commander January 2025

Comrades of Post 483,

Happy New Year! I have been reflecting on 2024. We have an incredible organization. It runs on the love of service and the love of taking care of Veterans and their families. That is why we exist. It would take forever and a day to thank all of you for your contributions to our honorable mission...but here goes!

Thank you for what you do in your communities to support Veterans, their families and other partner organizations. We can't do all we do in New Hampshire without your support. Here are a few photos I have collected at different events across the state. Just know that your contributions are making a difference in people's lives. For that I thank you and salute you! As corny and cliché as it sounds...I truly love you all!

CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

Greetings from the Chaplain's Desk

Deceased members:

None

Hope this report finds everyone doing well and that you had an enjoyable and festive holiday. Hopefully good health and joy will follow us into the new year.

The holidays have put us into a good frame of mind, so let's continue to foster that good attitude and relationship toward friends, family and neighbors throughout the new year.

Remember that all the good deeds that you do will come back to you tenfold, in blessings and rewards. If you do good, then good will come to you.

I ask that you continue to look out for friends and neighbors, during this winter season. Anyone aware of a veteran who is ill or in need of our support, please advise the Post, so that we may reach out to them. Wishing everyone continued good health and fortune.

Yours in Comradeship
Herbert CT Townsend

JOKE OF THE MONTH

A lawyer runs a stop sign and gets pulled over by a sheriff. He thinks he's smarter being a big shot lawyer from New York and has a better education than an sheriff from West Virginia. The sheriff asks for license and registration. The lawyer asks, "What for?" The sheriff responds, "You didn't come to a complete stop at the stop sign." The lawyer says, "I slowed down and no one was coming." "You still didn't come to a complete stop. License and registration please," say the sheriff impatiently. The lawyer says, "If you can show me the legal difference between slow down and stop, I'll give you my license and registration and you can give me the ticket. If not, you let me go and don't give me the ticket." The sheriff says, "That sounds fair, please exit your vehicle." The lawyer steps out and the sheriff takes out his nightstick and starts beating the lawyer with it. The sheriff says, "Do you want me to stop or just slow down?"

VETERANS INFORMATION

VFW Hosts Veterans Justice Commission: The VFW Washington, D.C., office hosted the Veterans Justice Commission to discuss the work it does to examine the extent and nature of veteran involvement in the criminal justice system, and to develop recommendations for evidence-based policy changes that can enhance safety, health, and judicial fairness. VFW National Legislative Director Pat Murray moderated a panel presentation with former Secretary of Defense Chuck Hagel and Commission Director Jim Seward during which they presented both state and federal policy proposals.

VFW Meets with Congressional Hispanic Caucus: VFW Post 7420 Commander Livier “Livy” Lizaro from San Diego addressed the House Congressional Hispanic Caucus during a roundtable focused on the challenges faced by Hispanic veterans and their families. The event brought together experts and stakeholders to discuss the issues affecting Hispanic service members and veterans nationwide. Lizaro highlighted the VFW's support for deported and repatriated veterans who were unable to naturalize during their service and emphasized the need for Congress to pass the TAP Promotion Act, ensuring all transitioning service members have access to accredited representatives for VA claims assistance before discharge.

VFW Responds to The Economist: VFW National Legislative Director Pat Murray publicly posted a vehement response to a poorly written and unattributed article titled, “American Veterans Now Receive Absurdly Generous Benefits,” published by The Economist. Murray said, “I’d challenge the anonymous cowards at The Economist to illuminate us on which parts of veterans’ healthcare and benefits are inappropriate, illogical, or wildly unreasonable?”

Reminder for VA Secure Sign In: VA has issued changes for signing into your VA.gov or My HealtheVet accounts. Currently, there are four ways to sign in to your VA accounts: LOGIN.GOV, ID.ME, My HealtheVet, and DS Logon. Both My HealtheVet and DS Logon will be discontinued for accessing VA accounts. My HealtheVet sign in will be available until Jan. 31, 2025. Veterans, family members, caregivers, and survivors with VA accounts are encouraged to transition how they sign in to access these accounts prior to that date.

I wish to thank Marc Plante, Steve Ordway and C.T. Townsend for their assistance in keeping the post organized and repaired. C.T. keeps our frig stocked and takes out trash. He also helps with veterans that need help for shopping for groceries. Steve put up the Christmas Tree in the lounge, does repairs and removes trash. Marc has done several repairs, cleans up after events, has taken the VOD, PP and Teacher program over and other duties.

BATTLE OF THE MONTH

Battle of Tucapel

Tucapel fort was located on a hill in the coastal mountain range. In December 1553, Mapuche forces, under the command of the vice toqui Lautaro attacked and destroyed the fort using the battle tactics learned from the Spanish. Pedro de Valdivia had left Concepción with only 50 soldiers and sent a message to Purén fort to send reinforcements. The message, however, was intercepted by Lautaro's men.

Valdivia received no reports from his leading element, and spent the night a half day's journey from Tucapel. On Christmas Day, December 25, 1553, he left early in the morning for the fort, arriving in its vicinity with silence reigning. He found it completely destroyed. Neither Gómez de Almagro nor Bobadilla was anywhere to be found. He decided to make camp amidst the damp ruins of the fort, but the contingent had hardly begun to make preparations when there were shouts from the surrounding forest. Without advance warning, a mass of Mapuche warriors charged out towards the Spanish enclave.

A veteran soldier, Valdivia had time to form and arm his defensive line and repulsed the first attack. The cavalry charged upon the rearguard of the retreating Mapuche force, but the Indians were prepared for this action and reversed the charge with lances. However, with much valor and resolution the Spaniards managed to drive back the resulting Mapuche surge into the forest. The Spaniards savored their temporary victory.

There was still more to come, however. A second squadron of Mapuches attacked, this time armed with maces and ropes as well as lances, with which they succeeded in dismounting the unfortunate Spanish caballeros, whom they quickly dragged out of the battlefield once they were on the ground. The Spanish managed to drive them back, but not without leaving many fallen. Then a third group of Mapuches appeared, this time with Lautaro behind it.

Valdivia, aware of the desperate situation due to the Spanish losses and fatigue, gathered together his available men and threw himself into the bitter fight. Already half of the Spanish forces were casualties and the Indian auxiliaries were steadily being reduced. Valdivia, seeing that the fight was lost, ordered the retreat, but Lautaro himself came around the flank and sealed the Spanish fate. The Indians felled every one of the Spaniards, and only Valdivia and the cleric Pozo, who rode the best horses, were able to escape. However, when crossing the swamps the men became bogged down and the Mapuches eventually captured them.

VFW PLEDGE I do, of my own free will and accord, solemnly promise and declare that:

I will bear true allegiance -- to the Constitution of the United States of America -- and I will always be loyal thereto. I do further solemnly promise and declare -- that I will comply with the Congressional Charter -- By-Laws and Ritual of this order -- and I will always be loyal thereto -- that I will never wrong or defraud this organization -- nor a member thereof -- nor permit any wrong to be done to either -- if in my power to prevent it. I will never propose for membership -- any person not eligible -- nor one whom I know to be unworthy. I will never make known to anyone -- not authorized to receive it -- any of the work of this order. Should my affiliation -- with the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States -- cease in any way -- I will consider this pledge -- as binding outside of the order -- as though I had remained a member of same. All this I promise and pledge -- upon the honor of a true comrade -- and a citizen of our great republic.

I attest that I am a citizen of the United States, that my Campaign Service was honorable, that I have never subsequently been discharged from military service under dishonorable conditions. I also certify that (1) I am entitled to a campaign ribbon or medal authorized by the U.S. Government based on my overseas service or; (2) I have served overseas in Korea or; I have received Imminent Danger/Hostile Fire pay. I further give authority to the Veterans of Foreign Wars to verify honorable overseas service entitling me to membership.

The review committee has performed its duties and recommends approval, rejection.
