POST COMMANDER'S MESSAGE

Comrades,

Hope this finds you well. January has been a very cold and snowy month. I am ready for spring even though we have a few more months of winter. Things to look forward to is the VFW Day of Service in May which coincides with our Loyalty Day celebration. Please come out and support our students, teachers and first responders.

We are close to 100% membership please if you have not renewed yet please do it ASAP. I want to reach National's goal of 101%. We are so close!

As I stated at our last meeting, I will not be accepting nomination for Post Commander this year. I have Commander for the last 3 years and I have truly honored that position. I have some things in my personal and professional life in where I need a break. I will still be a member and it does not mean I won't accept another position, just not Commander. I also will remain, if nominated and elected, an officer with District.

As always, if you have any ideas, comments or concerns please let me know.

Yours in comradeship,

Chris DiTullio

State Commander's Message

Hello Comrades

I hope that everyone survived the large snowfall we got at the end of January. With the holiday season in November and December over I'd to now focus on the last five months of this fiscal year. First and foremost please don't forget to check on your individual members of your post that either don't or are unable to attend the monthly meetings. Even just a friendly phone call to say hello and how they are doing I believe would mean the world to them. As of this writing on Jan. 26th our state is at 89.74% membership. We must get back to getting out into the public and recruiting new members. If you schedule a recruiting event and would like a state line officer to attend please send either Paul or the line officer themselves and see if they might be able to attend. I myself do have a lot on my calendar but if I get a request to attend I will do my best to make it. The goal being only 101% and you reach that please keep going and help the posts that are struggling. Thank you.

I believe at this point that I've visited eleven posts so far with another six due this month. I'm going to do my best to go to each post meeting for a social visit. The ones I've been to so far to me have been great visits and have enjoyed meeting old friends and hopefully made new ones. The posts I'll be visiting this month are Northwood, Bennington, Raymond, Hollis, Franklin, and Hampstead. I had other posts scheduled since July of last year but at that time had only one car available.

It was great seeing those comrades attending the C of A in Concord and those that could stay and those that attended the VOD/PP and teachers award ceremonies. It was a fantastic time and great food at the Hilton in Concord. We were blessed having all five districts represented for the VOD and three districts represented in the PP. There was a teacher present for all the grade categories

At the state level we have the Washington legislative week at the end of this month going into March with your legislative chairman AJ Corrow attending along with your state line officers. We will have a great presence representing your great state of New Hampshire while we visit your state elected officials lobbying for laws helping to protect and increase benefits for veterans. On April 4th we will be having the testimonial for your Auxiliary President and myself at the Common Man in Claremont with the times being from 2pm - 6pm. There will be more info coming out in the near future.

I want to wish all comrades and their families along with the auxiliary of New Hampshire a happy and prosperous 2026 year.

CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

Greetings from the Chaplain's Desk

Deceased Members:

None

Hope this report finds everyone doing well and that we've sufficiently recovered from our holiday hangover. Hopefully good health and joy will continue to follow us into the new year.

Even though, we are through the holidays, we ask that you continue to remember those who are less fortunate and continue to need our support. There are agencies that support those in need, but remember that they need support as well.

Remember that our Post is here to support our veterans and their families. Please reach out if we can be of any assistance. Continue to look out for each other and stay safe. I ask that you continue to look out for friends and neighbors during this winter season.

Anyone who is aware of a veteran who is ill or in need of our support, please let the Post know so that we may reach out to them.

Yours in Comradeship

JOKE OF THE MONTH

Why did I get divorced? Well, last week was my birthday. My wife didn't wish me a happy birthday. My parents forgot and so did my kids. I went to work and even my colleagues didn't wish me a happy birthday. As I entered my office, my secretary said, "Happy birthday, boss!" I felt so special. She asked me out for lunch. After lunch, she invited me to her apartment. We went there and she said, "Do you mind if I go into the bedroom for a minute?" "Okay," I said. She came out 5 minutes later with a birthday cake, my wife, my parents, my kids, my friends, & my colleagues all yelling, "SURPRISE!!!" while I was waiting on the sofa... naked.

VETERANS INFORMATION

VFW Attends SVA NatCon 2026: VFW members were recognized for their outstanding commitment to the student veteran community during the Student Veterans of America (SVA) 18th Annual National Conference (NatCon), held this year in Colorado Springs, Colorado. Past VFW National Commander Brian Duffy addressed the conference's general session noting, "Education prepares you for tomorrow. Advocacy protects it." He concluded by stating, "Together, the SVA and VFW are still serving. We are still leading. And we can never stop thinking about tomorrow, because the next generation of warriors depends on us." VFW National Veterans Service Assistant Director of Field Operations Cindy Noel and VFW National Pre-Discharge Claims Representative Rick Boring assisted student veterans at a claims clinic on site. VFW National Legislative Service Associate Director Gabby Kubinyi participated in the event's "Meet Your Veteran and Military Service Organizations" panel discussion.

The VFW-SVA Legislative Fellows for the 2025-2026 class are:

- Shadic Anderson, Marine Corps veteran, California State University
- Juanita Murillo Garcia, Army veteran, Northeastern University
- Giancarlo Gonzalez, Army veteran, St. Petersburg College
- Kimmie Kim, Navy veteran, Vanguard University of Southern California
- Austin Lawrence, Navy veteran, Harvard University
- Sarah Lively, Air Force veteran, Concordia University.

VFW-Supported Tuition Fairness Bill Signed into Law: H.R.983, Montgomery GI Bill Selected Reserves Tuition Fairness Act of 2025, is now Public Law 119-55. Introduced by Rep. Van Orden (WI-3), this bill was approved by the House without objection and passed the Senate by unanimous consent. It requires VA to disapprove courses provided by educational institutions that charge higher than in-state tuition for individuals utilizing the Montgomery GI Bill-Selected Reserve benefits while living in the state where the education is located, regardless of the individual's state of residence. The VFW applauds the passage of this legislation.

VA Class on Airborne Hazards & Burn Pit Exposure: On January 22, 2026, the Department of Veterans Affairs will be offering a session for veterans titled "Airborne Hazards and Burn Pits: What You Need to Know", register here. VA offers education classes for veterans via telehealth to provide veterans with the most current information and education on deployment related health concerns. VA offers a variety of classes throughout the year to keep veterans informed about research, access to integrative health services, and more to optimize their wellbeing.

BATTLE OF THE MONTH

Battle of Iwo Jima

The Battle of Iwo Jima (硫黄島の戦い, Iōtō no Tatakai, [\[9\]](#)[\[10\]](#) Iōjima no Tatakai[\[11\]](#); 19 February – 26 March 1945) was a major battle in which the United States Marine Corps (USMC) and United States Navy (USN) landed on and eventually captured the island of Iwo Jima from the Imperial Japanese Army (IJA) during World War II. The American invasion, designated Operation Detachment, had the goal of capturing the island with its two airfields: South Field and Central Field.

The Japanese Army positions on the island were heavily fortified, with a dense network of bunkers, hidden artillery positions, and 18 km (11 mi) of tunnels.[\[12\]](#) American ground forces were supported by extensive naval artillery, and enjoyed complete air supremacy provided by US Navy and Marine Corps aviators throughout.[\[13\]](#) The five-week battle saw some of the fiercest and bloodiest fighting of the Pacific War.

Unique among Pacific War battles involving amphibious island landings, total American casualties exceeded those of the Japanese, with a ratio of three American casualties for every two Japanese.[\[14\]](#) Of the 21,000 Japanese soldiers on Iwo Jima at the beginning of the battle, only 216 were taken prisoner, some only captured because they had been knocked unconscious or otherwise disabled.[\[15\]](#) Most Japanese were killed in action, but it has been estimated that as many as 3,000 continued to resist within various cave systems on the island after most major fighting ended, until they eventually succumbed to their injuries or surrendered weeks later.[\[16\]](#)[\[17\]](#)

The invasion of Iwo Jima was controversial, with retired Chief of Naval Operations William V. Pratt stating that the island was useless to the Army as a staging base and useless to the Navy as a fleet base.[\[18\]](#) The island's airfield did support P-51 Mustang long-range escort fighters to protect B-29 Superfortress bombers en route to Japan[\[16\]](#), and also for emergency landings of B-29s, although these were of limited value late in the war.[\[17\]](#) The Japanese continued to maintain early-warning radar capabilities on the island of Rota, which was never invaded by American forces.[\[18\]](#) Experiences with previous Pacific island battles suggested that the island would be well-defended and that seizing it would result in significant casualties. Lessons learned on Iwo Jima served as guidelines for American forces in the Battle of Okinawa two months later and the planned invasion of the Japanese homeland.

VFW PLEDGE I do, of my own free will and accord, solemnly promise and declare that: I will bear true allegiance -- in the Constitution of the United States of America -- and I will always be loyal thereto. I do further solemnly promise and declare -- that I will comply with the Congressional Charter -- By-Laws and Ritual of this order -- and I will always be loyal thereto -- that I will never wrong or defraud this organization -- nor a member thereof -- nor permit any wrong to be done to either -- if in my power to prevent it. I will never propose for membership -- any person not eligible -- nor one whom I know to be unworthy. I will never make known to anyone -- not authorized to receive it -- any of the work of this order. Should my affiliation -- with the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States -- cease in any way -- I will consider this pledge -- as binding outside of the order -- as though I had remained a member of same. All this I promise and pledge -- upon the honor of a true comrade -- and a citizen of our great republic.

I attest that I am a citizen of the United States, that my Campaign Service was honorable, that I have never subsequently been discharged from military service under dishonorable conditions. I also certify that (1) I am entitled to a campaign ribbon or medal authorized by the U.S. Government based on my overseas service or; (2) I have served overseas in Korea or; I have received Imminent Danger/Hostile Fire pay. I further give authority to the Veterans of Foreign Wars to verify honorable overseas service entitling me to membership.
